

A DAY OF CONGRESS

The Maybrick Resolution Reported Unfavorably in the Senate.

BUT NO ACTION WAS TAKEN.

The River and Harbor Bill Encountering Some Opposition in the Commerce Committee Because of the Large Number of Contracts Authorized—Mr. Gorman Wins His Point on the Printing of the Patent Office Gazette—Bankruptcy Bill.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—In the senate to-day Mr. Hoar (Rep., Mass.), reported back Mr. Call's resolution proposing intervention in the case of Mrs. Maybrick. "It is an adverse report and covers only three lines," explained Mr. Hoar. "and I ask indefinite postponement of the resolution."

The report was read. It recited briefly that the proposed intervention was not a subject within the jurisdiction of the senate. A vote was about to be taken on indefinitely postponing the Call resolution when Mr. Allen (Pop., Neb.) suggested that it would be well to wait until the author of the resolution was present before disposing of the subject.

Thereupon the resolution went to the calendar without action. A lengthy discussion was had over awarding the contract for the patent office gazette. Mr. Gorman explained that the preparation of the gazette ought to be open to the fullest competition, and he moved to recede from that provision of the bill giving the contract for another year to the present contractor.

Mr. Platt (Rep., Conn.) referred to the trouble, amounting almost to a scandal, concerning this patent office gazette, and said that as this had been overcome the present contract should be continued.

The absence of a quorum caused much delay and numerous roll calls, the Gorman amendment finally being adopted—28 to 25. This opens the award of the patent gazette to general competition.

Mr. Cullom presented a partial agreement from the conference committee on the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill.

Senator Gordon, of Georgia, gave notice of a proposed amendment to the naval bill appropriating $50,000 for arms, accoutrements, etc., for the naval military of the various states.

The Maybrick Law.

Among the reports were those by Mr. Teller and Mr. Mitchell, presenting the majority and minority views on the bankruptcy bill.

This bill is the result of the labors of the committee on judiciary for three Congresses. This committee took the bill introduced by Mr. Powers, of Vermont, for the basis of its work, his bill being based upon the Oates bill of the last Congress, which was a modification of the Torrey bill. Both voluntary and involuntary bankruptcies are provided for in the bill, the involuntary features being carefully limited to the benefits of the act as voluntary bankrupts, but corporations are excepted because the laws of the states creating them provide for winding up their affairs. Any person owing debts to the amount of $1,000 or over, if guilty of an act of bankruptcy, may be adjudged an involuntary bankrupt, except a national bank, a person engaged in farming or the tillage of the soil and a wage earner. A wage earner is "an individual who works for salary, wages or hire, at a rate of compensation not exceeding $1,500 per year," national banks are closed and their affairs administered under the provisions of the national bank act. The bill was passed both before and after disolutions and before a settlement of its affairs, may be adjudged bankrupt and in such cases the partnership debts must first be paid. All bankrupts are allowed the exemptions prescribed by the laws of the state in which the bankrupt resides.

The bill carefully prescribes the duties of bankrupts, provides for their protection and detention, allows compositions or settlements with creditors and provides for discharges except when frauds are practiced. The bankrupt cannot be discharged from taxes, judgments for frauds and willful or malicious injuries to the person or property of another, debts not proved and those created by fraud, embezzlement, or defalcation while acting as an officer or in a fiduciary capacity. The bill creates two new officers, trustee and referee. Fees and compensation of these officers are limited and the expense of administering a bankrupt estate and it is stated will be small.

All causes of involuntary bankruptcy except two involve fraudulent intent, purpose and act. Suspending payment of commercial paper for thirty days, while insolvent, making an assignment for the benefit of creditors and filing a written statement admitting inability to pay debts, also constitute acts of bankruptcy.

Acts of bankruptcy must have been committed within four months but in some cases as in case of concealment or running away to avoid the service of civil process, the transfer of property to defeat creditors etc., or to return forty-eight hours before petition filed in a petition for possession and ownership of the property transferred ten days before the commencement of proceedings, relieves the offender from the operation of the law.

The rest of the day was given to the Dupont case, Senators Burrows, of Michigan, and Brown, of Utah, supporting Mr. Dupont's claim.

The senate committee on commerce has been considering the rivers and harbors bill for several days. It is understood that considerable opposition has developed to the many contracts provided for in the bill, and there is quite a struggle over the particular features. It is claimed that more contracts are authorized than one bill ought to carry.

The senate in executive session confirmed the following postoffice nominations:

Ohio—Bernard Indlekofer, at Weston; Francis Verrill at Fayette; R. F. Shipley at Massillon.

Pennsylvania—L. K. Dekard, at Middletown.

District Business in the House.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 13.—This was District of Columbia day in the house. Some preliminary routine business was transacted.

A bill was passed to pay the heirs of John Rueben, late United States attorney for the middle district of Tennessee, $25,000, being the balance of compensation due him.

The house then proceeded with the consideration of District business.

The house committee on ways and means, to which was referred the appropriation of $50,000 for a statue of General Butler, after it had been reported by the committee on the house and military affairs sitting jointly, will report against the appropriation.

Monterey in Collision.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 13.—Captain Ludlow, of the Monterey, has reported to the navy department by telegraph the collision yesterday between his vessel and a three-thousand-ton Swedish merchantman. The Monterey was lying at anchor at the time in Puget Sound. The Swedish steamer struck the warship on the starboard quarter dead ahead, denting in one plate below the water line and knocking off three rivets here. The Swedish steamer was reported to be in danger of sinking at the time of sending the dispatch. The Monterey was ordered to Seattle to go into the new dry dock. Meanwhile the Swedish steamer has been labelled for repairs.

PROHIBITION KERTMENT

Divided as to the Coming National Convention's Platform—Will be No Split.

NEW YORK, April 12.—John Lloyd Thomas, editor of the Constitution, formerly secretary of the national prohibition convention, in answer to a question as to whether there would be a split in the prohibition party at the Pittsburgh convention, said to-night: "There will be no split in the prohibition party. There are two wings to the party as there are to all political parties. One wing favors a declaration simply on prohibition and silence on all other political questions, including equal suffrage, monopolies, finances, etc., which the party has declared for in past years.

"The other wing believes that the party must declare on all political questions that are before the people and that silence will be equal to a sanction of present conditions.

"Thus far somewhat over one-third of 1,000 delegates to the national convention have been elected. About four-fifths of the election delegates favor the broad platform adopted at the Pittsburgh convention. Prohibition, of course, will always stand as an essential element in our reform program.

"Trouble with the woman suffragists in the convention? No trouble, no. But there will be a lively discussion and the women suffrage plank will be in the platform."

FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY

Of the Incorporation of the Pennsylvania Railroad Celebrated.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 12.—The fiftieth anniversary of the incorporation of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company was celebrated in an elaborate manner in this city to-day. The jubilee began formally at noon, when President Roberts and the directors of the company held a reception in the assembly room of the big office building of the company. Here the officers of the great corporation from all over the country paid their respects to the head of the road and the men who direct its property. This ceremony was followed by a reception in the President's room and the board room, to which about 800 men distinguished in finance, railroads, politics and the learned professions had been invited. At this function an elaborate luncheon was served and speech-making of an informal character was indulged in.

At 3 o'clock the big event of the day took place. This was the public meeting at the Academy of Music. The opening address was delivered by President Roberts. The orator of the day was Joseph H. Choate, of New York.

FAVOR THE WOMEN.

Their Admission to the General Methodist Conference Adopted.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 12.—The question of the admission of women delegates to the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church has been practically settled in their favor. A letter received to-day by Rev. C. W. Smith, D. D., editor of the Pittsburgh Christian Advocate, from Rev. D. S. Monroe, D. D., of Altoona, secretary of the general conference, stated that the constitutional amendment, which carries with it the fate of the proposed women delegates, had received more than the requisite three-fourths vote of those present and voting in the annual conference. Ten of the 120 annual conferences have not yet voted, but when they do it cannot effect a change in the present state of the movement.

The vote to date is 6,937 in favor of the amendment and 2,157 against. This giving the required majority with 275 votes to spare.

Mr. Hanna's Position.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, April 13.—Mr. A. Hanna was asked to-day if he cared to make any reply to the interview with Judge J. H. D. Stevens, chairman of the national executive committee of the A. P. A., regarding the attitude of that organization toward Mr. McKinley. Mr. Hanna spoke for himself personally by saying he never received any invitation, verbally or by mail, to attend an A. P. A. conference in Washington, and not having received such an invitation, he could not have replied to it. He declined to say anything for Governor McKinley on the subject.

More McKinley Delegates.

BALTIMORE, Md., April 13.—County conventions were held in this state in Montgomery, Charles, Carroll and Garrett counties to-day. Montgomery and Garrett declared for McKinley and Wellington delegates at-large. The others were divided, but local interests prevented state or national attitudes.

AT MONTICELLO.

Distinguished Democrats Visit the Shrine of Jefferson.

MONEY QUESTION DISCUSSED

By Ex-Governor Russell and Senator Daniel—Cabinet Officers and Prominent Party Leaders Celebrate the Anniversary of Jefferson's Birth—Chauncey F. Black, President of the Democratic Clubs, One of the Speakers.

MONTICELLO, Va., April 12.—To-day, the 133rd anniversary of Thomas Jefferson's birthday, was fittingly observed here, where he lived and died, by a gathering of a large number of prominent Democrats from all sections of the country. The distinguished guests included Vice President Stevenson, Secretary Herbert, Postmaster General Wilson, Attorney General Harmon, ex-Governor Russell, of Massachusetts, Chauncey F. Black, and Lawrence Gardner, president and secretary respectively of the National Association of Democratic Clubs, and nearly two scores of senators and representatives, and a number of national committeemen.

The party left Washington in a special train this morning, arriving in Charlottesville about noon and proceeded at once to Monticello, about two miles distant from the town, where they were welcomed by Mr. Jefferson M. Levy, the present owner of the estate. The exercises commenced shortly after 2 o'clock and upon the broad lawns were assembled several hundred people who had come from the surrounding towns and farms. Three addresses were delivered—the first by Chauncey F. Black, the second by ex-Governor Russell and the third by ex-Senator Daniel, of Virginia. The greatest interest attached to the speech of the latter, Mr. Russell speaking squarely on "sound money" platform and Senator Daniel combating his position with a free silver argument. The party returned to Washington about 9:30 to-night.

Hon. Chauncey F. Black, the first speaker, paid a glowing tribute to the memory of Thomas Jefferson and in concluding introduced ex-Governor Russell. The latter declared that the secret of Jefferson's power and leadership was in his steadfastness to inherent principle; his courage, his faith, his resolute leadership have guided the latest as they did the first of the Democratic administration which, with vigor and patriotism, have made dominant the wishes, the rights and the welfare of the whole people. We need not fear defeat. We met it in '88 and then went forth united and strengthened to triumphant victory.

Senator Daniel spoke of Jefferson and his works, and in discussing the financial question took opposite views to those expressed by ex-Governor Russell, who opposed free coinage.

Tom Johnson There.

NEW YORK, April 12.—A banquet was given at the Hotel St. George in Brooklyn to-night by the Young Men's Democratic Club in honor of the anniversary of the birth of Thomas Jefferson. About 150, including guests, were present, among them were Hon. Tom L. Johnson, of Ohio; Judge William B. Hirsch, Hon. Herbert W. Hendrix, Judge William Gaynor and J. T. Marean. President Ferguson presided. After a letter from Henry George had been read, Hon. Andrew McLean responded to the toast "Thomas Jefferson." Hon. Tom L. Johnson, of Cleveland, Ohio, was then introduced by President Ferguson, who said that as the ex-Congressman was a peace-maker in '92, he would make a first class presidential candidate in '96. Mr. Johnson spoke on the Democratic duty in 1896.

A MINE EXPLOSION.

Five Men Probably Fatally Injured by an Explosion of Fire Damp.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 13.—Five men were probably fatally injured by an explosion of fire damp during a fire in the Red Ash vein of the Woodard mine to-night. They are: William Powell, fire boss, John Evans, mine foreman, James Lewis, miner, William D. Morgan, miner, Arthur Golightly, laborer.

There is very little chance of recovery for the men, all of whom inhaled gas. The fire was burning at a late hour, but the superintendent said there was no danger of its spreading. The mine is one of the largest in the Wyoming valley and is operated by the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad Company.

BEST WELL YET STRUCK

In the Berea Field Opposite Marietta. The Peculiar Character of the Territory. Excels the Wonderful Mackburg Field.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

MARIETTA, O., April 12.—Kilduff & Co., drilled deeper into the sand in their well on the Dyke farm, in West Virginia, about five miles from this city to-day and the well shows up for the best Berea well yet struck in this field. No estimate can be made as to what it will produce when drilled clear through the sand.

This strike makes a Berea field one mile wide a thing never before seen, not excepting the wonderful Mackburg. The length of the belt can only be determined by further developments. Bligs are being erected as fast as possible in the territory adjacent to this and the other Berea wells struck in this field, and drilling will start as soon as possible.

There are at present twenty-eight strings of tools drilling now two miles east from this city in West Virginia, and contracts for wells are being let daily by the half dozen as the weather clears up. For several months, the operators have been handicapped, but from the way work is starting off they seem to be making an effort to make up for lost time.

BARNUM CLUB'S SLATE

For Huntingdon Offices Causing a Lively Dispute in the Second City.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

HUNTINGDON, W. Va., April 12.—The political situation from a Democratic standpoint is intensely interesting. It began with the election of Mayor Ensign as mayor of Huntingdon. After his election, the infamous Barnum club came to the front and prepared a slate for the offices made vacant by the outgoing city administration and to be filled by the six Democratic councilmen and Mayor-elect Ensign. The Advertiser (Democratic organ) denounced this action of the Barnum club on Saturday afternoon. To-day the Advertiser follows with a demand that the Barnum club shall rescind its action, and that if it fails to rescind that its slate shall be smashed remorselessly.

The situation is critical to the Barnum club. What it will do is doubtful. To-night, it is said, that Dr. Reese, the club's president, has repudiated the action of Friday night. This looks like a back-down, but the club is between the devil and the deep sea.

SERIOUS BRIDGE ACCIDENT.

Five Lives Lost by a Gravel Train Breaking Through a Trestle.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 13.—A special to the Times from Mitchell says: Five men were instantly killed and two others so badly injured that they will die before night, in a bridge accident. It happened a half mile from Bedford Junction on the Belt railroad, on which the stone from the Bedford quarries is transferred from one road to another, at 9 o'clock this morning. The train broke through a trestle.

The dead are: Charles Ordeen, conductor, Sherman Carpenter, fireman, Warren Leonard, of Walton, Ky., —Masteron.

Bevins.

The injured are: Charles Daves, Engineer Menner.

The train consisted of an engine and two gravel cars and was running at a high rate of speed at the time of the accident. While passing over what is known as the Standard trestle, the last span from the direction of Bedford collapsed. The locomotive was at that time beyond the trestle, and had it not been pulled from the track by the weight of the cars behind it, the men on the engine would have escaped. As it was, the two cars went down with the trestle into a ditch seventy-five feet deep and the engine, pushed backward in the ditch, rolled over and plunged down an embankment seventy-five feet high.

All the men who were on the train were employees of the road and were engaged in ballasting the track with gravel between Mitchell and Bedford. The breaking of the trestle will blockade the road for several days.

PNEUMATIC GUN EXPLODES

During an Official Test and Wounds a Spectator—Will Be Tried Again.

NEW YORK, April 12.—A test of the new Dudley pneumatic gun, for firing projectiles containing high explosive gelatine, was made to-day at East Island, Long Island Sound, before Major General Nelson A. Miles and the board of ordnance of the United States army and navy. The gun was operated by Designer Howell E. Elwell. In the first test, five projectiles were fired in rapid succession, the projectiles, weighing thirty-three pounds and containing about thirteen pounds of the explosive, being thrown a distance of from three-quarters of a mile to a mile and a quarter. The second test, however, did not result so favorably, for during a target test, five projectiles the gun exploded at the third shot, the officers, who were standing in a semi-circle behind it, escaping only by a miracle. One man, a spectator, was badly cut by a piece of the metal. The accident was due, it is supposed, to the shattering of the wooden butt of the dummy projectile, which prevented the escape of the compressed air. Another test will be made.

DRUNKEN INDIANS

Kill all of the Officials of the Town of Juquila, Mexico, and then Flee to the Mountains.

CITY OF MEXICO, April 12.—A telegram from Oaxaca City, this afternoon, states that the rebel Indians at the town of Juquila killed all the town councilors, school teachers, local priest, chief of police and the telegraph operator, in fact, every one holding a government place. The people are in terror and with dummy have been sent for the relief of the town.

The military movement made against the rebel Simatins has resulted in driving the Indians into the mountains. They began their plotting in Holy week, and by Indian lawyers, who informed them that the new laws of Texas was unconstitutional. But the authorities paid no attention to the excitement among them, considering they were engaged in their usual drunken celebration of the season. But procuring arms and matches, they made a rush for the town hall and the prefect hastily closed the doors, which they soaked with petroleum and burned, thus effecting an entrance, sacking the place and penetrating the private apartments of the prefect, grossly maltreated the women of his family, and then turning attention to the officials and armed servants, killed and wounded several.

The scene was a horrible one as the assault took place in the early evening and the excitement of the mob was in its height. The Indians were possessed with fury and it was absolutely impossible for respectable inhabitants to control them, as all were drunk and maddened. The mob after sacking the town hall, went to the federal stamp office and assaulted M. burning down the outside door with petroleum, which also communicated fire to the entire house, placing Collector Graciana who was on the roof with his clerks in a condition of the utmost peril, but they managed to escape by the rear, jumping for their lives. Many shops were burned after being sacked and the Indians decorated themselves with stolen finery. They all fled on the approach of the soldiers and are now in the hills. The revolt is local and hardly expected and instigators of the Indians will be severely punished, as they took advantage of their gross ignorance.

MURDER AND SUICIDE

Ends the Strange Infatuation of a Young Woman in a Double Crime.

ELGIN, Ill., April 12.—Miss Mary Linnett, of Chicago, shot and instantly killed Miss Elizabeth Trowbridge, a prominent young woman of this city, and then killed herself shortly after 8 o'clock this evening.

The double tragedy took place in South State street, the principal residence portion of the city, and when the police reached the spot, both girls were found lying dead on the sidewalk in a pool of blood, while in the hand of the murderess was grasped a large revolver.

Miss Linnett some two years ago conceived a singular liking for a young woman in Chicago, a neighbor, and attempted to take her life because she would not live with her. She was sent to the insane hospital here less than a year ago and was discharged from the institution as cured in December last. Miss Trowbridge was an attendant at the hospital and had charge of Miss Linnett who became passionately attached to her.

THE CUBAN WAR

Spanish Executions of Cuban Prisoners Continued—Gomez Still Reported Alive.

HAVANA, April 12.—Colonel Tort, south of Melena, province of Havana, has been engaged with about 2,000 insurgents under Masao and Carrillo. The enemy left twenty killed and retired with sixty wounded.

Colonel Segura has pursued and was engaged with the insurgents at Piedras, province of Santa Clara. The Camal and Comercio squadrons charged and dispersed the insurgents who left twenty-four killed and five mancar cabins on the field. The next day Colonel Segura again overtook the insurgents and in the engagement which followed five more of the enemy were killed.

The body of Benito Corbo, the insurgent leader who was killed at Punta Brava, has been identified.

It is stated that the insurgent leader Cardenas is seriously wounded. Maximo Gomez is now said to be in the Santi Spiritus district of the province of Santa Clara.

A dispatch from Matanzas to-day announced that the insurgent incendiary, Timoteo Mesa, was shot this morning. It is reported that it was Collozo, the insurgent leader, who, with 800 men set fire to the town of Santiago de las Vegas on Friday last.

There will be more executions this week.

NICARAGUAN REBELLION

Causing Little Damage to the Opposing Armies—No Fighting Reported.

(Copyright, 1896, by the Associated Press.)

CORINTO, Nicaragua, March 12.—The following are the notes taken on a horseback journey through the district of Nicaragua, now disturbed by civil war, commencing on the morning of February 28, on which day you commenced your journey from Managua, the capital.

At noon I was with President Zelaya's army at Metlare, and passed his outposts, three miles west of Nagarote, at 2 p. m., arriving at Nagarote, which was unoccupied by troops of either side, at 6 p. m. I learned, however, that the insurgent general's, Bacas, cavalry had occupied the place during the 25th and had evacuated it on the morning of the 26th.

On February 24, the President and secretary of Congress and an alleged majority of the legal Congress of Nicaragua, on substitutes who had adjourned for over Sunday at Managua on February 22, convened at Leon and "proclaimed" that General J. Santos Zelaya, whom the legal Congress of Nicaragua had appointed to be President of Nicaragua in September, 1893, had violated the constitution of Nicaragua and therefore, they decreed, that the appointment of J. Santos Zelaya to be President of Nicaragua be revoked and that Vice President Francisco Bacas, Jr., is hereby appointed legal President of Nicaragua for the unexpired term."
